Just got my first death on IG from a burner account (like Teeeejayyyyyyy111) or something like that saying "We Found You!"

Like, no shit idiot, I have an IMDB page, a website, and pictures of me in uniform. Top notch detective work Sherlock. Please come to NYC and do something about it. 🤡🤡

If it was Rachel Maddow or Anderson Cooper who had been shot, the right wing would be absolutely praising the shooter. If former president Obama had been killed, they would erect statues of the killer and their tweets would NOT be as considerate and tone deaf as @gavinnewsom was.

(Continue his work? F you, Gavin)

So yes, I post a lot of anger here on threads. It's quite true. But you know what I don't do because im not some fear mongering, disgusting, n@zi piece of amphibian sh*t?

I dont call the houses of people I disagree with and threaten to kill or hurt their families, or make r@pe threats like Republicans do. They do it all the damn time. To colleges, churches, anyone who disagrees with them. Can't even imagine how much AOC and those folks go through.

The dude would have happily walked us to the firing squads and gas chambers.

Let's not let him get sugar coated after death. Drag him for all that he was and all the harm he would eventually do if he continued to live.

Charlie Kirk:
"Black women do not have brain processing power to be taken seriously. You have to go steal a white person's slot."

A monster died today. So did children in Colorado. The children are the only innocents here. It's awful Charlie's kids had to see that. That those videos will likely haunt them for their whole lives. But those kids in Colorado are gone, because Charlie promoted the ideology that they were necessary casualties. Its sad Charlie's kids are traumatized for life, but its not a sad thing that he's dead.

charlie kirk bullied me relentlessly in high school to the point that I had a suicide attempt before the age of 18. I feel sympathy for his wife and kids, and only them.
I also lost my father very young, something charlie knew as he was giving me hell. The only reason I want to go back in time to stop this from...

Kash Patel needs to stop tweeting. What was it, twice they thought they had the guy, but it was a bust? Dude, stfu. You suck at your job.
Also, if this shooter is as photogenic as Luigi, we definitely live in a simulation.

You can brag all day about taking the high road while the undertow drags you out to sea and drowns you.
Tiny face, lower case teeth Theo Fascist Charlie, died not only while being a transphobic, homophobic bigot, he died trying to convince other people to be the same as him. That's why he died.
Do you think he decried the assassination of the MN legislators? He did not. Instead he said Emmeth was a rickshaw

Im learning real fast how many people on IG that I know would barely write strongly worded letters while I was marched off to the executed and dropped into a mass graves because they didnt agree with fighting fascism directly.

They want recognition for loudly expressing how much nothing they will do.

Exactly. Fuck Charlie Kirk. And Fuck Mike Johnson even more.

Lemme understand this: House Speaker Mike Johnson asked for a moment of silence for Charlie Kirk, but not for the three children in Colorado? Mike, lean in real close: GO FCK YASELF.

This could be us if so many goombas weren't such bootlickers and huffing Joe Rogans shit in a bag like glue. Make the rich afraid. Make ICE afraid. Make the politicians work for us, or else.
